Students are also required to participate in the dress rehearsal on Wednesday 26 May.

Dress Rehearsal: Students are allowed to wear light makeup on both the rehearsal day and festival evening.

If you are dropping your child off at Laycock Street Theatre on Wednesday 26 May, please ensure they are there by 8.30am. Students are not permitted to enter through the foyer. I will be waiting at the side entrance. If you are not dropping your child off at Laycock Street Theatre, please ensure they are at school by 8.00am. I will meet these students in front of the hall.

On the performance night: Students will need to be dropped off at Laycock Street Theatre on Thursday 17 June at 5.15pm in their full dance costume including hair and make-up (make-up is optional). Students are not permitted to enter through the foyer. I will be waiting at the side entrance. Students will remain at the theatre with teacher supervision until the conclusion of the performance, approximately 9.15pm where a parent or guardian is to collect them via the side door. Students are not permitted to leave the performance early.

No student will be permitted to leave without being accompanied by an adult.

Please indicate if your child will be collected by another adult by outlining the details on the attached note. Due to COVID-19 restrictions, no one can attend if they are feeling unwell.

Ticket Sales: Tickets for Show C go on sale on Wednesday 26 May. They sell out quickly so purchase your tickets early. They are only available through Laycock St Theatre online: www.laycockstreettheatre.com, over the phone or in person at Laycock Theatre office. Students are not to purchase tickets for the show they are performing in as they will not be able to sit in the audience before or after their performance. Prices are as follows, adults $24 and children $20.
