Week 10

Design a new cover for the picture book. What did you change from the original cover?	Turn a picture book into a four cell comic strip. This means you must sum up the story in four cells. Add speech and thought bubbles to the characters.	If you were going to give a gift to a character out of the book, what would it be and why? Draw a picture of the gift and the character's face when they receive it.	Make a travel poster describing the location of the setting from the book. Be sure to include persuasive devices in your poster enticing people to travel there.
Create a timeline of the events from the picture book. Create a small illustration to go with each event.	Change the resolution that takes place in the story. How does this change the ending? Rewrite the end of the story with the new resolution.	Write a Wikipedia entry for one of the characters in the book. Include information such as the character's name, age, background information and interesting facts.	Identify one word used by the author that helps you understand the mood of the story. Write a definition for it. Then draw an illustration that reflects the mood of the story.
Create a bumper sticker to convince people to read the picture book. Make sure it is bright and visible from a moving car.	Create a rap summarising the picture book. Make sure you don't leave out any of the events in the story. Then create a video to go along with your rap.	If the book you read became a TV show, what would be a good theme song for the beginning of the show? Why do you think this song would be appropriate?	Create a 'Most Wanted' poster for one of the characters in the book. Be sure to include what they look like, why they are wanted and what the reward for their capture will be.
Make a collage to represent the mood or theme of the book.	Make a playlist that the main character in the book would take to the beach. Why did you choose each song?	Create a job application for the main character of the book. What job would they be applying for? Fill out the application as if you were them.	Imagine you are the first TV journalist to read the picture book. Write and perform a review of the book to be broadcast on the news.

The Scenario

For years, you have been asking your parents for a cubby house for your backyard. Finally, they have decided to build you one for your upcoming birthday!

Your parents are keen to see your ideas about what the cubby house should look like. They would like you to do a drawing of your ideal cubby house using 2D shapes such as squares, rectangles, circles and triangles. They have promised to build your cubby house exactly the way you would like it - interesting, unusual and crazy ideas are welcome!

The Task

Draw a crazy cubby house design on grid paper using a variety of 2D shapes.

Colour your cubby house design according to the 2D shapes you have used.

Present your cubby house design to your class.

The Materials

- Lead pencil
- ruler
- coloured pencils or markers
- grid paper

The Procedure

1. Plan your crazy cubby house using the worksheet provided.
2. Use a pencil and a ruler to draw your design on the grid paper provided.
3. Colour your design according to the 2D shapes you have used e.g. squares = red.
4. Present your crazy cubby house design to the class.

Outdoor Mindfulness Scavenger Hunt

Go outside and use all of your senses to complete this scavenger hunt.

Find something that makes you happy.

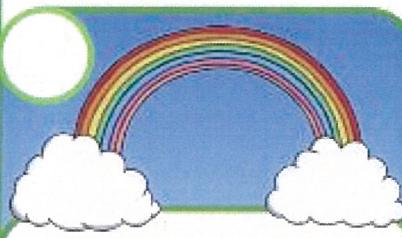

Listen to a bird singing.

Find something that smells nice.

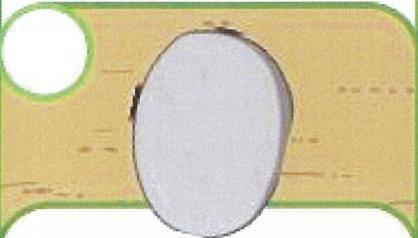

Listen to leaves rustling on a tree.

Find something that is your favourite colour.

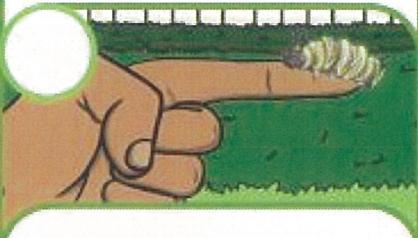

Find something that makes a noise.

Find something that is smooth.

Find something the colour of the sky.

Find something as small as your fingernail.

Look for a cloud that is shaped like an animal. Watch it change shape.

Follow an insect. What is it doing?

Find something that is soft.
